

PREVENTION OF SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Scope

This statement sets out the steps that Steve Vick International (SVI) has taken to make sure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in our supply chain or in any part of our business.

SVI is a UK based medium sized company that works closely with utilities companies to provide products and solutions to the repair, replacement and decommissioning of pipework. Our work mainly covers the UK, but also has pockets of work across the rest of the world including Europe & the Middle East.

Principles and standards

As a statement of principle SVI has a zero tolerance approach to any form of slavery, forced labour, child labour or human trafficking in relation to our business and in our supply chain. We will endeavour to ensure Slavery & Human Trafficking are eliminated however, we cannot guarantee that it is not present in some form if our supply chain partners do not honestly disclose information to us when requested.

We therefore expect all businesses in our supply chain to adhere to this principle in relation to their own businesses to protect workers throughout our supply chain against any such abuse.

This also means that we expect suppliers to operate effective means of disclosure within their own organisations and to honestly disclose any statements to SVI when conducting supplier audits.

The standards which we expect businesses in our supply chain to maintain include:

- No forced, bonded, or other involuntary labour, slavery or human trafficking.
- No child labour, which means any person under the age of 15 or (if higher) the mandatory school leaving age under local laws.
- Not to discriminate against workers or prospective recruits on any basis (including without limitation) in relation to race, colour, religion, sexual orientation, pregnancy, age, disability, political opinions, or other personal characteristics.
- Ensure that all workers are treated with respect and human dignity and prohibit all forms of violence, physical abuse, harassment or intimidation.
- Comply with local laws on working hours and time periods.
- Workers' pay must comply with applicable local laws, including in relation to minimum wage requirements.
- Providing equal opportunities and diversity in the workplace.

Human Resources

All new starters are subject to prescribed right to work checks so as to ensure that SVI does not employ illegal workers. SVI operates an employee code of conduct which requires employees to uphold SVI's high standards of business integrity, honesty and transparency in all aspects of its business dealings.

Employees are given awareness training of the issues surrounding Slavery & Human Trafficking. All staff are required to uphold SVI's high standards of business integrity, honesty and transparency in all its business dealings. Employees are required to immediately report any possible breach of the code of conduct to their line manager, or directors.

This statement is made to comply with section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the SVI slavery and trafficking statement for the financial year ending 30th June 2024. SVI will provide a copy of this policy statement within 30 days of receiving the initial request.
